Community Association To Hear Juvenile Head

The problems of dealing with juveniles and the problem of preventing them from becoming delinquent will be discussed by Pat Falace, chief of the Juvenile Bureau of the Los Angeles Police Department at the next meeting of the Shoestring Community Association, according to recently installed President Harold T. Unander, 1442 West 214th street.

The association, open to any resident of the Shoestring Strip, meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month in the Nazarene Church on Carson street.

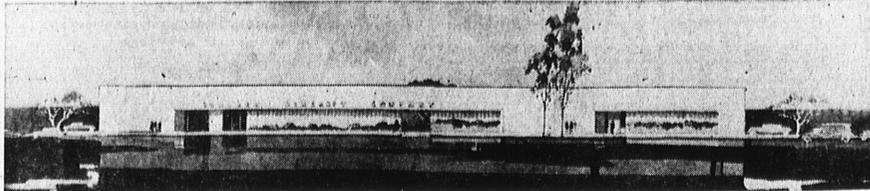

Other recently seated officers include: Frank Farrell, vice-president; Mrs. William Self, treasurer; Mrs. E. N. Reese, recording secretary; Mrs. Minot Rugg, corresponding secretary; Fred Schimmel, auditor; Mrs. W. C. Sidwell, historian and Mrs. E. G. Spratt, parliamentarian.

Moose Members To Hear Report On Convention

A delegation of fifteen members of the Torrance lodge family represented this city at the annual state convention of the Loyal Order of Moose at Santa Cruz, August 1-4, according to a report to the lodge that will be made at a regular meeting next Monday.

Governor and Mrs. George Powell lead the representatives to the convention, which included Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Scanlon, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamback, Mr. and Mrs. O. Clausen, Tom Sawyer, Harry Green and Dan Hutchins. Powell revealed that plans for a new high school for Mooseheart, Ill., the city of children sponsored and promoted for the dependent children of deceased Moose members, was announced at the convention. Torrance delegates gave their unqualified support to the project. The Harry Lewis children of this city are enrolled at Mooseheart through the intercession of the local lodge.

ARCHITECT'S EYE VIEW . . . Is this drawing above showing what the Longren Aircraft plant, now a hodge-podge of corrugated buildings, will look like after "fencing-in" and beautifying of the front of the plant is completed by architects and construction crews. The face-lifting job will cost $150,000, plant officials estimate.

$150,000 Plan Will Fence-in Longren Plant

To be launched soon is a beautification and "fencing-in" program by officials of the Longren Aircraft Company on Carson street.

The $150,000 undertaking by the concern now filling mobilization contracts for four major airplane manufacturers, would result in a front being created along the Carson street side of the plant. Present architectural drawings of the proposed development show the use of modern styling - with louvers, flutes, glass doors, flagstone, and shrubbery.

Longren until recently was engaged in the manufacture of bakery display cases and toys.

The company officials recently signed several seven-year contracts to supply the plane man-

Frank Carpenter, recreation director, presented the Lions Club with the premiere showing of "Let's Play," a 40-minute color motion picture showing all phases of summer recreation activities in Torrance last Tuesday noon at the Torrance Woman's Club.

Craft displays from seven city playgrounds were displayed in connection with the showing.

GETS MERIT AWARD

Secretary James Evans disclosed that Dan Desmond, past governor of the Moose lodge, has been cited with the "Governor's Merit Award" for outstanding achievement during his term of office.

Designer of the new front for the factory is Maurice H. Fleishman, of Beverly Hills, designer of the Kaiser Fontana steel plant.

"We hope also," said Hanpden Wentworth vice-president of the company, "that the fencing-in of the plant will tend to decrease the noise."

Tops in Scavenging

Charles Codinell's team won the El Retiro scavenger hunt staged Friday afternoon by bringing in sixteen of the twenty assorted items hunted, from false fingernails to plaid shoelaces. Other members of the group were Don Allbough, Bruce Mapes, Preston Griffiths and Larry Scott.

Firehouse Band to Play

The "Firehouse orchestra" will again be featured at a dance to be presented at the Torrance Moose Lodge Hall on Carson street, Saturday, August 11th at 8:30 p.m., George Powell, governor, announced this week.
